

Flat Curious

It's that time of the year again, when Curious flies the nest for summer.

Well technically this time, the only flying Curious will be doing is around the home - socially distanced.

Curious will be sharing with you on Instagram (#thecuriousowlnewspaper) how the day is spent. Why don't you share a day with Curious and send us pictures of what you are up to, while being in 'lockdown'.

Carefully cut around Flat Curious following the scissor line and stick it on stiff card and Curious is ready to go!

Take a picture with Flat Curious or just Flat Curious alone and we will put it up on Instagram and Facebook. Some will get published in Volume VII.

Send us your Lockdown Selfie* with your name, age and school. Add a line or two telling us what Flat Curious is doing.

E-mail it to the2curiousowls@gmail.com or WhatsApp 9765110201.

Happy Owlidays

*Please check with your parents if the picture can be used on social media, especially if the picture has you or any person in it. We will assume you have asked if you send it to us.
